

Linda Cahn, Esq.

Linda Cahn is the head of Pharmacy Benefit Consultants, a consulting firm focused on assisting corporations, unions, municipalities and insurance companies to decrease and control their prescription coverage costs by conducting contract-focused PBM RFPs and providing ongoing assistance. Cahn is also the executive director of the National Prescription Coverage Coalition - a new Coalition of employers, unions and municipal entities that have joined together and decreased their prescription coverage costs by 15% to 33%. Over the years, numerous news sources have quoted Cahn as a national prescription coverage expert, including the NY Times, Bloomberg, Fortune, NPR, Pro Publica and Managed Care magazine. Cahn is a graduate of Princeton University and Hofstra Law School—both with honors—and a member of the NY and NJ Bars.
