

Nancy Jester

Nancy Jester is a Senior Manager on the US Benefits Design and Strategy team for Walmart, headquartered in Bentonville, Arkansas. Nancy has been with Walmart for 17 years, with her entire career working in the Benefits space. Over the past 6 years, she has been strategic with Walmart's Centers of Excellence programs, by both designing and implementing innovative programs to drive Walmart's medical plan enrollees to obtain the most appropriate care, including the cancer and bariatric programs. Nancy is also responsible for managing Walmart's direct contracts with eight ACOs across the country, as well as design and strategy for life insurance and voluntary benefits. Nancy joins us to share Walmart's Centers of Excellence journey.
